

McPhillamys Gold Project

Community information events in Blayney

Regis Resources is holding a series of events in Blayney, to update the local community on the McPhillamys Gold Project.

Come along and talk to our staff to find out more about the project plans. If you can't make these events please feel free to call in to our Blayney office during business hours, Monday to Friday.

Please join us to find out more about McPhillamys Gold Project.

Community Open Days

It was good to see so many people dropping in to this week's McPhillamys Open Days. Neighbours and local residents took the opportunity to discuss the project with our staff and technical advisers.

Blayney Farmers' Market

Sunday 19 May, Carrington Park

Call in to our information stand at the Blayney Farmers' Market this Sunday.

Community Meeting

Thursday 23 May (6pm-9pm)

Community Centre

41 Church Street, Blayney

This will be a 'Town Hall' meeting open to everyone interested in the McPhillamys Gold Project.

The meeting will be independently chaired by the Chairman of the McPhillamys Community Consultative Committee Chairman (CCC), David Johnson.

We look forward to seeing you there.
